The weekend was 'well rad!!' which means it was awesome!! We were all in the same bedroom (apart from Sarah who went in with the older ones) and our 2 leaders were next door (the 2 Joannes).

It was great for us to have choices of PGL activities before we went, and the final choices were as follows - outdoor challenge course and catapult building - which Jo Stokes' team won by catapulting the tennis ball the furthest and making the best one. Raft building using wood, rope and floating bales - in any design we wanted as a group - was great fun, although the water was freezing when we fell in!!

We then went inside and had different games and challenges on the climbing wall, and opportunities to climb to the top, with someone holding the rope. At one point Jo Dolman was holding the rope through the security hoop when Paul came down the wall, Jo was lifted off the floor - this made us all laugh!!

We enjoyed having responsibilities and choices of sandwiches at lunch time, the food was great all weekend.

We had a list that we had to sign up for 3 choices of workshops where we learnt about manifestos, self-esteem activities especially designing bags with happy and sad times, and then played a board game on mental health questions.

It was 'well rad' that we met new friends, had freedom to play games, chilling time and watching a film and chose on the Sunday what prayer stations we wanted to do as well as worship songs - even though only 2 of us go to church regularly it was great to have the opportunity for this and it was relaxed. Jo Dolman and Laura led it together - Jo read the Bible passage on doubting Thomas and Laura did the rest.

The stations were colouring, making stuff out of playdough, writing questions to God and putting down what we wanted to leave behind or pray for.

We would love to do more of this and to meet up regularly. Thank you for helping us to go on this 'well rad' weekend.

A prayer for the General Election

For those who are campaigning for political office, that in serving our communities and national life - truth, justice, peace and wellbeing might become priorities for all.

For those for whom the results could mean significant change – that they might find grace and wisdom for the way ahead.

That those with leadership and influence will act wisely and in the interests of all people - seeking stability and justice for our world.

That as Christian citizens in society, regardless of whether we currently face the prospect with relish or trepidation, we will have wisdom and courage to seek God's Kingdom and pursue his purpose in the emerging political landscape.

For those whose Christian identity has inspired them to serve in public life – that they might act as faithful followers of Jesus in every circumstance they face.

Adapted from election prayers from the Joint Public Issues Team
